May 2018 – Sep 2018	Research assistant Department of English and Linguistics, University of Mainz Project: Positive Learning at Risk in the Age of Information (PLATO)

Research projects

Complex Predicates in Languages: Emergence, Typology, Evolution (ComPLETE), LLACAN–CNRS/LATTICE–ENS, CNRS/University of Mainz [as research assistant]

Positive Learning at Risk in the Age of Information (PLATO), University of Mainz [as research assistant]

Eurasia3angle, Max Planck Institute for the Science of Human History [as doctoral candidate]

Research interests

- Morphosyntactic typology
- Documentation and description of endangered languages
- Areal typology of North and East Asian languages
- Diachronic syntax of North and East Asian languages
- Role of structural linguistic factors in information processing and reasoning
